The Trotting Stallion
DIRIGO.

This Horse will be kept the present season at the following places:
Monday, Tuesday, and Saturday at W. L. Quimby's stable, South Exeter.
Wednesday and Thursday at Judson Hussey's stable, Dixfield.
W. G. Chandler, Wabash, Ind., Alexander, Dixfield, is also owning the Trotting Colts than any man in Maine, and we believe not even excepting Hiram Woodruff, Jr., Esq., of Fordham, one of these Little Dred trotted a mile in New York, on the Prospect Park Park, Greenfield, Mass., last fall, mile heats, best three in five, against all horses that never trotted 2:40 and won in three straight heats—time 2:41, 2:39½, 2:39½, making better and faster any 3 young horses ever trotted from Maine. Dirigo is now for the season, and for insurable mares, he will stand at Dixfield, Maine.
Dirigo was purchased in 1864, of Horace M. Rooney, of Monroe, (the same town Thos. Ireland, Esq., of Bangor, owns Lord Lee, the Old Hollow Horse, also, an imported Arabian Thoroughbred Mare. Her color is a beautiful dark brown. She weighs 1,000 lbs., and very stylish. In being the pleasure of the owner to inform those of the County, the terms of service are put very low.
Warranted to stand single service, if not proving with foal, the money will be refunded.
☞ No charge for Mares that slip foal.

Medical Notice.
CHRONIC CATARRH.
There are hundreds in this city who are at this moment suffering from Chronic Catarrh, and in ninety cases out of a hundred they are not aware of the danger to which they are exposed. The symptoms are these: A sense of fullness in the head, attended by a little or no discharge from the nose, at first; a dullness of hearing, which soon follows; a change from one stage to another, and rapidly increasing in frequency and severity, until the sufferer is in the last stage of consumption. Now, it is almost impossible to exaggerate the danger of a catarrhal condition, and the object of Dr. Clarke in the treatment of Chronic Catarrh, and it has been over and over again stated, and still is true and accurate, and the statement is not overdrawn, that no other disease has been so much neglected, and proved so fatal to human life, as Chronic Catarrh. Dr. Clarke's Catarrh Remedy is a positive cure for the worst cases of Catarrh, and will be sent to any person on receipt of price, $5.00, in little or large. Dr. Clarke's Catarrh Remedy has failed in no case that has been under treatment for one month, and will be sent to any person on receipt of price, $5.00, with written guarantee that it will cure them in one week's time, or any person can call and have their money refunded. Dr. Clarke's Catarrh Remedy requires no change of diet or other treatment.
The Remedy is for sale by all Druggists throughout the United States.
Dr. CLARKE is located at 1 Tremont Row, Boston, Mass., where he can be consulted personally or by letter, free of charge. Office hours from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

Dr. J. F. BABCOCK,
Graduate of the Medical College of Dental Surgery,
SURGEON DENTIST,
No. 9 Ohio Street, - - Bangor,

Is now ready to offer the most improved treatment of all diseases of the teeth. Toothache is made speedily and permanently cured in nearly all cases, by one application. Decayed teeth are built up with the best material, and rendered useful for many years. Teeth are inserted on Gold, Silver, Rubber or Tin Plates, in the most approved manner, so that they are useful in masticating the food, and are also an ornament to the face. Teeth are inserted without pain, by the use of Nitrous Oxide Gas, or Ether, as the patient may prefer. Children's teeth carefully attended to. Dr. B. has had many years experience in the treatment of children, and will be happy to attend to their dental wants. Every operation performed in a manner to give satisfaction, or no charge will be made. Dr. B. is a graduate of the Medical College of Dental Surgery, and has had the best of the situation.

Railroad Matters
LEAVENWORTH, July 20.
The laying of the track on the Leavenworth, Atchison and North Western Railroad commenced yesterday. Work is also commenced on the bridge to be built across the Missouri River at this point.

FROM WASHINGTON
WASHINGTON, July 20.
The Internal Revenue Bureau has received information of the seizure of eight illicit distilleries in Wake County, N. C. There are 55 or 60 more distilleries in that section. The Collector says the liquors consumed in the vicinity of two distilleries.

The Flood in the West
ST. LOUIS, July 20.
A despatch from Quincy, Ill., states that the late rains have so damaged the Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad between Hannibal and Palmyra, that the trains commenced running between these places for the first time, between this place and Palmyra on a large part of the country is inundated so that the tracks can with difficulty be traced. The Toledo and Wabash Railway is much damaged and no trains have left here this morning. No trains have arrived from Friday night or Sunday night. Over thirty feet of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad bed had been carried away near Augusta, and on Saturday night a passenger train narrowly escaped running into the break where the water poured through like a river. Large quantities of wheat in the stock have been purchased away by high excess in Adams County. South Hannibal is inundated and 8000 feet of lumber have been washed away.

New York, July 20.
Two Frenchmen employed in the silk mills at Paterson, N. J., fought a duel near the depot in that city at about half-past 9 o'clock yesterday evening. Their seconds failed to agree on time and the two went to work without them. The weapons were pistols and the distance ten paces. At the first fire one was slightly wounded in the leg. Another fire was demanded and both were severely wounded in the right arm. They then declared themselves satisfied, shook hands and went to work to bandage the duel. They had fought the duel however and the affair thus ended.
Laborers are now busy in the construction of the Elevated Railway. The pillars are erected at intervals of 100 feet, but the beams are laid only to Rector street. The progressing rapidly however, and it is hoped that the line will be completed to 30th street within a month.
An Italian named Domenick Vitti was brought to his home at No. 76 Thompson street in a dying condition on Sunday by two brothers named Geiger, also Italians. The Geigers stated that while sleeping alongside of a railroad track near Easton, Pa., all of them being at the time on a musical tramp, Vitti was struck to the ground by a passenger train. Vitti in a fluctuated moment said that he had been struck by a man, and the two brothers have been arrested.

Raid on the Filibusters
New York, July 20.
The Tribune reports that Marshal Burns with a large force of marines last night made a raid on the Cuban rendezvous at Hoboken, captured 48 of the Filibusters and sent them to Fort Lafayette. He then telegraphed the fact to the Spanish Minister and President Grant.

The South American War
New York, July 20.
Rio Janeiro dates to June 25th state that correspondence of a quite interesting character has passed between Lopez and the Ocampo, in which the former demands the surrender of the allied fleet and army. Lopez and Bragg, the native leaders in the war, have issued proclamations declaring that Count D'Eu has assumed command of the allied forces in person, with headquarters at Tuyuty, about 7 miles from Lopez's headquarters.

The Cholera
New York, July 20.
A Nassau letter of the 6th inst. says the cholera has broken out in Puerto Principe and all along the railroad at Minas. Deaths run from 15 to 20 daily.

Railroad Matters
LEAVENWORTH, July 20.
The laying of the track on the Leavenworth, Atchison and North Western Railroad commenced yesterday. Work is also commenced on the bridge to be built across the Missouri River at this point.

FROM WASHINGTON
WASHINGTON, July 20.
The Internal Revenue Bureau has received information of the seizure of eight illicit distilleries in Wake County, N. C. There are 55 or 60 more distilleries in that section. The Collector says the liquors consumed in the vicinity of two distilleries.

The Flood in the West
ST. LOUIS, July 20.
A despatch from Quincy, Ill., states that the late rains have so damaged the Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad between Hannibal and Palmyra, that the trains commenced running between these places for the first time, between this place and Palmyra on a large part of the country is inundated so that the tracks can with difficulty be traced. The Toledo and Wabash Railway is much damaged and no trains have left here this morning. No trains have arrived from Friday night or Sunday night. Over thirty feet of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad bed had been carried away near Augusta, and on Saturday night a passenger train narrowly escaped running into the break where the water poured through like a river. Large quantities of wheat in the stock have been purchased away by high excess in Adams County. South Hannibal is inundated and 8000 feet of lumber have been washed away.

JOHN H. LYNDE, -- PROPRIETOR.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 21, 1869

State Election, Monday, Sept. 13.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Is it Principle or Prejudice?

Since the inauguration of the third party movement we have repeatedly attempted to procure an answer from its advocates to the question, What can you accomplish by, and what is the cause and purpose of, the opposition to the Republican party? We have never of them have attempted to justify their movement upon any ground of success as a party, immediate or remote, and their course and purpose of action have only been stated in general terms, and in a manner, if not intended, certainly well calculated to deceive the mass of voters. With an appearance, and in most cases a design, of fairness, their arguments and statements upon some points and their silence upon others have resulted in unfair conclusions.

It has occurred to us, for example, as contrary to the fact and of questionable taste to represent the actors in this movement as par excellence the temperance party, when it is not claimed that one third of the temperance men in this State follow it, and when the oldest and most noted temperance leaders refuse to guide in any such path, and when it is well known that a good proportion of its members (though few) are actuated by very different motives. It is little better to attempt to place it upon the constabulary platform, when it is so notorious that a large proportion of the temperance rioters themselves are opposed to that system; while, on the contrary, we believe that a large number of Governor Chamberlain's friends are in favor of it. A majority of the Republican party are temperance men, who are now in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the law. We judge parties by their acts, not by their claims, also, contrary to the fact, we should find it necessary to conclude that the Democratic party is the people's party. So the Republican party is the temperance party of Maine.

But it is in the personality of the contest that the most unfair conclusions have been reached by means of the weakest conceptions. Indeed, the campaign, so far as the third party is concerned, turned upon a matter of personal preference. To illustrate, we quote from an article in the Dexter Gazette:

"Now with regard to this "Third Party" movement, it cannot be denied that the great mass of the Temperance men throughout the State had become impressed with the conviction that Gov. Chamberlain was not the man for the standard-bearer of the Temperance party."

Suppose they have become impressed with that conviction, does that signify that this is just or true? It is no surprise to any one acquainted with the manner in which prejudices and preferences for public men can be manufactured by designing partizans, to find that, after a season of persistent clamor, this idea has obtained to some degree in relation to Gov. Chamberlain. And from the general tone of the third party leaders, we take it the campaign is to be fought upon this "conviction."

To a candid mind the first inquiry in such a case would be, is that conviction properly founded? Popularly strong, such statements as we have quoted are morally weak when we come to examine the evidence. Gov. Chamberlain has been identified with the temperance cause of our State quite prominently on several occasions. If he has ever failed to respond to the demands of the cause, it has been only when his sense of duty required his absence. Not one charge against Gov. Chamberlain upon this ground is supported by facts. If we call for the opinions upon which the "convictions" are based we are charged with disregarding the interest of temperance, or we are met with silence or with a repetition of generalities always culminating in this, that the people have become impressed with the conviction that Gov. Chamberlain does not represent the temperance cause. It would be just as easy and just as reasonable to make and sustain many other charges. Why not state here? Why not charge Gov. Chamberlain with a whole catalogue of immorality, dishonesty, irreligion, because in his official course he has not always been associated with moral or honest or pious men? The community might very easily be impressed with the conviction that, like old dog tray, he should suffer for the company that is forced upon him.

This is a feeble cause which depends wholly upon personal grounds for its motive. How much more feeble is that which depends upon groundless impressions of personal reputation, unconfirmed by tangible testimony. The facts are very few men months since decided that Gov. Chamberlain should be punished for some imaginary offense and they commenced the war with reckless innuendoes. They were wise enough to know that these weapons are effectual when dexterously handled, and they have poisoned a few hundreds of our voters by this means. But they were not wise enough to foresee that falsehood reacts with double force, and that, while the mass of those who have been induced to follow them properly escape censure, those who started this ungenerous warfare must finally suffer from the act.

We believe the campaign is assuming its true form, and that people are beginning to see that the charges against Gov. Chamberlain,—and consequently the motives for the third party,—are founded in willful misrepresentation,—a selfish determination to break a man down under the plausible cloak of "temperance." The people are above the cowardice of assailing persons in this manner, and the determination to elect Gov. Chamberlain has been intensified by the very means taken to injure his chances. He is stronger to-day than when nominated. The people have demanded the proof of his abortionings; the proof has not been presented, and they fairly deprecate the charges. They are rapidly becoming impressed with the conviction, founded upon these facts, that the new party is simply the result of jealous and heedless personal prejudice, and its result is only calculated to damage the cause to which it is spuriously dedicated.

The New York Tribune says our Government is paying off the principal of its debt with a rapidity entirely unprecedented. Yet Mr. Brooks, in his address to the Democratic State Convention of Pennsylvania, had the extraordinary assurance to say that the Democracy "did not believe that party ought to be upheld which had failed to extinguish, as it ought to have done, some two or six hundreds of millions of public debt," as the Democracy is inflexibly opposed to taxation and other means of revenue, we don't see how it could extinguish the debt any faster, except by repudiation. Is that rogues coming up again?

VIRGINIA, MISSISSIPPI AND ARKANSAS.

A Washington correspondent of the Boston Advertiser telegraphs that a delegation of radical Republicans from Virginia and Mississippi are here. The former talk a good deal about trying to show Congress next winter that the election of Mr. Walker as governor was carried by fraud, while the latter are showing various government officials that the so-called Dent movement is merely the work of the Democratic party, and that it will be a bad thing to have it succeed. Gen. Ames, well known as a judicious officer, concurs in this view. Gov. Clayton of Arkansas is visiting North. He gives very favorable accounts of the political affairs in that State. The severe measures used for a few months had the effect to suppress lawlessness, and at present, he says there is very little disorder in any part of the State. The corps are everywhere good, and there is a more cheerful feeling in regard to all material affairs than has existed before since the war.

The new fractional currency will soon be put in circulation. The ten cent notes are already out, and are a decided improvement over the old issue in style and material. They are considerably smaller than the old ones of the same denomination, and very neat in design.

A "Harmonious Democracy."

General E. R. V. Wright, of New Jersey, gives a deplorable picture of the state of the country:

"Judging from the past, we are in the hands of the Philistines; an imbecile President and a corrupt Congress control our destinies; old Tammany looks on and weeps; for day will come; she will as she always has, rise equal to the occasion; thrusting forth her energies she will become a power in the land. I have no fear for the future. Give the American people time for reflection, and fanaticism will bite the dust."

Poor Tammany, weeping, is surely pathetic. Meantime the Cincinnati Enquirer forgives Gen. Rosecrans for beating the enemies of his country on several occasions. It suggests that Rosecrans is an impetuous, hot-headed man, and adds:

"We can well afford to forgive the ardor and prejudices of a soldier when he is excited and in the presence of an armed foe, even if he does say some things which may be deemed indiscreet."

At the same time the Journal of Commerce asks:

"Do the California democracy take the papers? Do they know what is going on in the North and South of these United States? or, being perfectly well aware of these things that are filling the breasts of their political brethren in other parts of the Union, do the California democrats intend to ignore them, or try to drag back, what is progressive in the party to the old anchorage in the mud? Men of sense understand the folly of contending with the past and impossible. Politicians, who as a general rule have the limited vision of grasshoppers, and no sense beyond the scent of the nearest fleshpots, are the ridiculous blunderers of the California democratic platform.

"It will only be that the democrats of California can carry no election on such issues as are above opened; but they will have to abandon them at last, and the sooner they do so for them will be the day soon, for the sake of a little temporary popularity or success, they committed themselves so rashly and unreservedly to the wrong side of two great questions."

There is nothing like harmony.

THE AUGUST ECLIPSE. Mr. Skinner of the Dearborn Observatory, contributes to the Chicago Times the following exact data in reference to the solar eclipse on the 7th of August:—

"This eclipse will be visible throughout the whole extent of the North American continent as a partial eclipse. The places where it is to be total are confined to a narrow belt, less than 150 miles wide, extending in a southeasterly direction across the continent. The partial shadow of the moon first touches the earth in longitude west from Washington 138 degrees, and north latitude 58 degrees. The umbra, or the total shadow, touches the earth in longitude 105° west from Washington, and in north latitude 58°. In other words, at the first of these places the dark body of the moon is seen to touch the sun earlier than at any place, just as the sun is rising.

"The umbra of the moon travels at first in northeasterly direction toward Behrings Straits, where it bends gradually eastward, and from Behrings Straits it begins to travel in a southeasterly direction, which general direction is followed across British America and the United States. To speak definitely, the central line of the path of the total eclipse enters the territory of the United States about 200 miles northwest of Fort Benton, in Montana Territory, and passes through the Yellowstone and the Missouri rivers.

"It then continues across the territory of Dakota and enters the State of Iowa near its northwestern boundary, passes along the south border of Illinois, and Indiana, across Kentucky, the south-eastern corners of Virginia and Tennessee, and through North Carolina. The central line begins to be observable at Bangor at 5.55 p. m. in Portland at 5.15 and in Eastport at 5.32, and will last the sunset.

FOURTH OF JULY SPEECH IN SAN FRANCISCO.

At the celebration of the Fourth of July in the city, San Francisco, on Monday, the 5th, the day had received the congratulations of the city's guest, was interrupted by a loud explosion. At the time for the speaking of the oration the Presidio, three Pacific Railroads, and the iron rails across the continent, all simultaneously fired a salute of one hundred guns, announcing the completion of the Pacific Railroad. Governor Haight, who spoke following:—

"I have hoped a Fourth of July oration prepared for some time, but the delivery is not yet consummated. It will come when I see those two Pacific Railroads from the Rocky Mountains, covered with trees and vegetation, a vast field for the support of the immense population which is crowding to your shores; it will be when the star of empire which has come this way, keeping pace with the setting sun, after the pioneers of California shall shed its light, north to our boundaries and the Arctic Ocean, and south till its rays mingle with those of the Southern Cross in the tropics. This, fellow-Californians, is not to be seen by me, but I hope all here will live to see it. I hope I will live to see it. I think it is only seven years away from us now. I think it will be taken place by 1876—the year of the two hundredth anniversary of American Independence." (Immense applause.)

Here we have another instance of parental recklessness.

In Washington township, Indiana, last week Mr. Wilmot and his wife wanted to go to church in the evening. They had four children, the youngest eight years of age. Those poor creatures are left locked into the house with a coal oil lamp. The children go to bed. The lamp explodes, setting the house on fire. The residence is burned. Nobody can get in to rescue the children; until it is too late. The charred remains of the sufferers are found on the floor or near by.

Some people, with the usual mania for calling things by the wrong name, may call this absence of a religious turn, they may call it an act of Divine Providence; but we call it murder; and it is none the less so because it is the kind of murder which is not mentioned in the criminal code.—Tribune.

Vallandigham's explanation of Rosecrans' nomination for Governor of Ohio is to the effect that "Since the Copperheads" the word is his—were made to take a back seat, it was but fair that the war Democrats should accompany them, and so he was forced to take a Republican bandidate.

Political and Personal.

The New York Citizen (Dem) says: "It is clear that the Ohio Democracy believe the delusion is still raining. For heaven's sake let them come out of the ark, the shower is over long ago."

Speaking of the Democracy of Pennsylvania the New York Nation says: "In Philadelphia, for example, they have a convict and blacking, among their nominees."

The Chase men among the Pennsylvania Democracy were particularly active in persuading Gen. Hancock to keep out of politics, for fear, it is said, that he might prove a troublesome rival in the Presidential competition.

In one of his eccentric speeches Senator Sprague said that nothing in the world was more mean and cowardly than a million of dollars—except two millions. Asa Packer, the Democratic nominee for Governor of Pennsylvania, is worth twenty millions!

It is said that the testimony testimony taken by the Louisiana investigating committee, when made public, will show a very startling condition of affairs in that State; how elections were carried by fraud and intimidations used to prevent voters from exercising their rights, as citizens, and a disorganized condition of society generally. The committee will not prepare their report until just before the assembling of Congress.

The programme of the Mississippi Conservative Republicans is said to be to elect Judge Dent Governor and then send him to the U. S. Senate, leaving Col. Warner, a New England man, who is to be nominated for Lieut. Governor, to fill his place. Gen. Ames, commanding in the State, who is now in Washington, does not all sympathize with the Dent movement, and thinks that its success will only throw the State into the hands of the class which ruled before and during the war.

(Opposite Revere House,) BOSTON

THE Physicians of this Institution take pleasure in announcing that they have secured the services of this eminent and well known Dr. A. H. HAYES, late Surgeon U. S. Army, Vice-President of Columbian College of Physicians and Surgeons, &c.

This Institution now publishes the popular medical book entitled "The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation," written by Dr. Hayes. It treats upon the Errors of Youth, Premature Decline of Manhood, Sexual Weakness, and all Diseases and Abuses of the Sexual Organs. Thirty thousand copies sold the last year. Is issued in book form for every man—young men in particular. Price only $1.00.

This Institution has just published the most perfect treatise of the kind ever offered the public, entitled "Sexual Physiology of Woman, and her Diseases," illustrated with the very best engravings. This book is also from the pen of Dr. Hayes.—Among the various chapters may be mentioned, The Mystery of Life—Beautiful Offspring—Beauty, Health and Vigor of Woman—Marriage—General Hygiene of Women—Puberty—Change of Life—Barrenness—Abortion—Prevention to Conception, &c. In beautiful French cloth, $2.00; Turkey Morocco, full gilt, $3.00. Either of these books present by mail, securely sealed, postage paid, on receipt of price.

The "Peabody Journal of Health," a first-class paper in every respect.—8 pages, 32 columns—published on the first of February, and every month 50 cents. Specimen copies sent free upon address, or application to the Peabody Medical Institute, A. H. HAYES, M.D., Resident and Consulting Physician.

N. B.—Dr. H. may be consulted in strictest confidence on all diseases requiring skill, secrecy and experience. Invariably Observed. Private Medical Advice Free.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup,

Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They act directly upon the liver, cleansing it of all morbid matter, and cause it to secrete healthy bile, which is the great cleanser of the human system. Thirty thousand people have been cured by this medicine within the last year, and it is indeed a boon to suffering humanity. Its first effects are to loosen the tight hold the disease has upon the system, and cause a free expectoration of the phlegm or matter which clogs the lungs, and when the phlegm or matter is ripe it will be raised with ease, and the cough will be loosened, and will begin to heal. The patient begins to get well as soon as the food begins to digest readily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal, and the patient gets healthy and well. This is the only way to cure consumption. When there is no lung diseased and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills should be taken with the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills and Tonic in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was induced some time to make an examination in the case of Pulmonary Consumption, in which physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the above medicines, and now he recommends them in the most unqualified manner to all afflicted. Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are entirely unlike any other medicines, and require the most careful and particular directions to be followed by the patient. It is absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, when in Boston, or write him, stating your symptoms fully, and he will give you advice free of charge, and direct you how to take his medicines. Office hours, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. Dr. SCHENCK & SON'S principal office is No. 32 Hanover St., Boston, Mass. Wholesale agents. For sale by all druggists.

City Affairs

An adjourned meeting of the City Council, the following business was transacted:—

A petition of John F. Jordan and als., for the appointment of an Inspector of Milk in the City as authorized by an act of the last Legislature. Referred to a joint special committee and Aldermen Woodbury and Weed. Laid on table in Common Council.

The following order was presented—

CITY OF BANGOR,
In City Council, July 20, 1869.

Ordered: That a committee be appointed consisting of two from the Board of Aldermen and three from the Common Council, and that said Committee be hereby instructed to make such examination of the Cole Pond as may be necessary to ascertain the quantity and purity of the water therein, the facilities for bringing the same into the city, and the probable expense of constructing suitable water works therefor, and also to examine the water works recently constructed for the city of Portland, Maine, and Salem, Mass., and such other places as they may deem best, for the purpose of ascertaining the most efficient for fire purposes of such water works as the Bangor Water Company may propose to construct; and also to examine into the cost to said cities of Portland and Salem, and such other cities, whichever they may deem best, and all other municipal purposes, and to report in the premises to the City Council; and also to examine and report what sum per annum in the judgment the city of Bangor can afford to pay said Bangor Water Company for sufficient supply of water from the said works for fire and sanitary purposes, for the supply of the Alms House, School Houses, City Hall and other City buildings, and for furnishing and the drinking fountains and watering troughs, and for sprinkling and cleansing streets, together with a sufficient supply for sprinkling our streets and all other municipal purposes. And that the said Committee be hereby directed to employ a competent engineer to assist the aforesaid examination. Provided however, that the cost of the aforesaid examination, including the expense and services of said Committee and Engineer shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars; and provided further, that the Bangor Water Company pay one half of the sum required for said expenses and services.

In Board of Aldermen, July 19th, 1869. Passed and Aldermen Weed and Whiting appointed on the part of this Board. Sent down for concurrence.

GEO. W. SNOW, City Clerk.

In Common Council, July 19th, 1869. Read and Councilmen Drummond, Patten and Bartlett joined on the part of this Board in concurrence.

JOHN H. HAYES, Clerk.

Petition of A. D. Manson and als., for the city to take the charter of the Bangor Water Company, and to make necessary examination into the expediency of constructing said Water Works, was referred to a Joint Special Committee, composed of Aldermen Woodbury and Weed and Councilmen Drummond, Patten and Bartlett.

An order was passed in Board of Aldermen, rescinding the order of July 12th heretofore passed, whereby the city authorized by an act of the last Legislature.

An order was passed in Board of Aldermen, authorizing the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department to purchase a new hose carriage for the use of the Fire Department, and to sell the old hose carriage belonging to the city.

An order was passed in Board of Aldermen, authorizing the Committee on Streets and Highways to purchase a new road scraper for the use of

IN A BOILER.

A CALIFORNIA LOVE-STORY.

About fourteen years ago I was employed as head sawyer in the steam saw mill of L. D. Smith & Co., near the mining town of S——. Mr. Smith had his family there living in a neat cottage close to the mill, and often I and the engineer, James Allen by name, were invited by our employer to attend the evening worship held in this house.

One evening, just as we were taking our usual family, we heard the sound of carriage wheels immediately followed by a knock at the outer door.

Minnie is coming! Minnie is coming! exclaimed Mrs. Smith, rushing past us to the entry. Her husband followed with a light.

A minute after the door opened and her eldest daughter Minnie was clasped in her mother's arms.

Minnie was a beautiful girl about seventeen years of age. Three years she had passed in a young ladies' seminary in Utica, N.Y., and now she had returned to her mountain home, amidst the pines and cedars of California.

The engineer and I lingered a little after her arrival, for both of us desired to be introduced to Minnie Smith.

Minnie, allow me to make you acquainted with Louis your head sawyer, and James the engineer. You'll be glad to make their acquaintance, for both are good musicians and excellent singers. I suppose your musical education has not been neglected eh.

I have learned a little instrumental music but I have no voice, replied she to her father. James then held out his hand, but she did not touch it, and I saw that he blushed deeply, while his eyes glittered revengefully at what he supposed her disdain.

Soon after we left the cottage. On our way to the mill I said:

James, old boy you look mad. Why don't you know in good society they never shake hands, but only bow.

Well, I didn't know it. But, nevertheless, she could have shaken hands with me when she saw that I held out my hand said he).

American & Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

And Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1861.

No. 78 State Street, opposite Kilby street, Boston.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, Great Britain, France and other foreign countries, Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms, with despatch. Reference made to American and Foreign Patents to determine the validity and utility of Patents of inventions, and legal and other opinions rendered in all matters touching the same. Opinion of the validity of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington. No Agencies in United States are necessary for securing Patents, or obtaining Patents for inventions.

During the last month the rubber Boot, in the course of his large practice, and in two cases rejected applications were appealed—every one of which was decided in favor of the Commissioner of Patents.

TESTIMONIALS.

I ... Mr. Eddy as one of the ... of my ... successful practitioners with whom I have had ... official intercourse. CHAS. MASON, ... Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in awarding him unquestionable ... ability and more than ordinary success in procuring patents for inventors. EDMUND BURKE, ... Late Commissioner of Patents.

M. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such a record is more than I can show, and I cheerfully take pleasure in recommending all inventors to make application for their patents, as they may be assured of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGHART, ... late Com'r.
